

Key

Exercise 1

- 1) Will be painting
- 2) Will have closed
- 3) Will see
- 4) Will see
- 5) Will be cleaning
- 6) Will be drinking
- 7) Will find out
- 8) Will never speak
- 9) Will have eaten
- 10) Won't tell

Exercise 2

Choose the correct word or phrase. If both are correct, circle both

1. Sonia looks like she's going to fall asleep.
2. When I leave school, I'm going to be a journalist.
3. When Jack's got his degree, he's going to drama school for a year.
4. Watch out or you are going to get into trouble!
5. When are they going to realize that they have to improve their customer service?
6. I can't come to the beach this weekend, I'm afraid, as we're visiting my grandparents.
7. The Prime Minister will answer all of your questions in due course.
8. What time does your plane arrive/ is your plane arriving?
9. I'm looking after the neighbors' kids tomorrow evening so I can't come bowling.
10. Shall we move on to the next item on the agenda now?
11. 'I don't feel well at all.'
'Are you going to sick?'
12. The last bus leaves/ is leaving at midnight.
13. Karen, shall I give you a hand with that report?
14. I'm afraid I won't have time to finish all this work today.
15. When is she going to get round to having new business card printed?

Exercise 3

1. How nice of you to come! I just will wash off and will get my coat on, and then I will show you around.
2. I will be cleaning up when you come with my things.
3. He says they will have finished the house by the end of next month.
4. Meg got on her father's knee and threw her arms around his neck. "Your father's tea will be getting cold, Meg" – said her mother.
5. He probably will get here in about three weeks. By that time I will have returned to the university.
6. "I don't have a job." "Don't be scared. We will find something".
7. In that case we will take a taxi.
8. You can't live that far from the office. In a little while you will be looking for a place back here.
9. Your father will be disappointed.

10. He will never make much money.
11. He will be practicing the violin all the afternoon.
12. The judge will ask you a few questions.
13. John is not here. He will be back soon, though.
14. He has a lovely voice. He will go a long way. You will see.
15. If you take my advice, you will go home.

Exercise 4

If the phrase in bold is correct, put a tick. If it is incorrect, write the correct form so that the sentence is in future perfect.

1. I think we will have sold out of these by the end of the day.
2. On Tuesday, Toby will have been with the company for exactly 35 years.
3. We'll have become the market leader by the end of the summer.
4. At the end of the summer, I'll have been taking the same train to work every morning for 15 years.
5. When we meet tomorrow afternoon, will you already have had a chance to look at the sale figures?
6. You'll have been driving for hours without a break when we get there, so you'll need a rest before we go out.
7. A Managing Director will have been appointed by the end of the month.
8. Sandra won't have finished the reports by then, but she should at least get started.
9. Ron's going to be very surprised when he hears the news. He definitely will not have been expecting it.
10. Will you have managed to put something down in writing by the end of the day?
11. Why will they have been waiting for hours? I thought you'd told them we were going to leave later.
12. It sounds like the invitations won't all have been delivered by next Friday.

Exercise 5

1. You can all go home when the bell rings/ has rung.
2. I'll take notes while Ahmed asks/ is asking the questions.
3. You become a junior employee once you have been a trainee for three months.
4. Miss Jones will be interviewing the candidates while Mr Dawkins is recording/ records the interviews.
5. We'll assess the situation again as the sales figures come in.
6. We will only consider promoting you once you have worked for us over a year.
7. They won't make a profit until they start selling in much larger quantities.
8. I'll know for sure that the book is going to be published when I am offered/ have been offered a contract by the publishing company.