Ex 3. Read the text below.

When I was at university in London, I used to love to pop into town on a Saturday afternoon and take a break from (1) discussing work (talking shop ) with my classmates. Unfortunately, since I was a student and I had to be careful with my money, I usually ended up (2) just looking (window shopping). If, on the odd occasion, I did need to buy something, I had to (3) search for the best price (shop around) and went (4) around in a panic (all over the shop) to find the best deal.

I have my first job now and don't live in London anymore. When I get the chance to go back, I usually (5) buy lots of things and (go on a shopping spree) (6) carry on shopping until I am exhausted (shop until I drop ). It's all very exciting but I (7) rush around and knock things over (am like a bull in a china shop ) as I try to find what I'm looking for.

Ex. 4 Going shopping? Where will you buy these things?

Baker's
Chemist's

A) Shampoo
B) Magazine
C) Bread
D) Chicken
E) Pen
F) Apples
G) Stamps
H) Ready-cooked meal

Chemist's
Newsagent's
Baker's
Butcher's
Stationer's
Greengrocer's
Post Office
Take away

Ex. 5. Complete the text below with the missing words:

I went to the 1. greengrocer's to get some apples then I got a book of stamps in the 2. post office. Then it was off to the 3. stationer's to get more photocopy paper and some new pens. The 4. butcher's was closed so I couldn't get any meat. I thought we get a chinese meal from the 5. take away tonight. Now, I promised the children a cake after dinner so if you're going out could you go to the 6. baker's and get some. See if you can get a loaf of bread while you're there too. Oh yes, and could you pop into the 7. newsagent's and get my Homes and Garden magazine and today's paper. We also need more shampoo so can you remember to get some in the 8. chemist's
